Dear Mr Davis

Thank you for your request of 25 July 2013 asking for information about accidents involving pedestrians over the past five years.

Part of your request asks:

- (a) How many pedestrians were killed in road accidents?
- (b) How many pedestrians were seriously injured in road accidents?

This part of your request is more closely associated with the activities of the NZ Transport Agency. I am therefore transferring this part of your request to that agency pursuant to section 14 of the Official Information Act 1982.

Yours sincerely
