Dear David,

Thank you for your email of 16 October 2019 regarding the Huntly revocation business case.

The NZ Transport Agency is currently working through the procurement process for this business case. The business case development will commence after professional services have been procured, consequently, we have not met with anyone as part of this business case.

If you would like to discuss this reply with the Transport Agency please contact Francisca Simone, Senior Transport Planner by email at Francisca.Simone@nzta.govt.nz.

Yours sincerely
