

From: "M.R.M." <fyi-request-13530-451ebe2a@requests.fyi.org.nz>
To: "OIA/LGOIMA requests at New Zealand Police" <ministerial.services@police.govt.nz>

Date: Monday, September 07, 2020 11:24AM
Subject: Re: OIA Response - IR-01-20-23555

For Follow up: 🚨 Urgent Priority.

Dear New Zealand Police,

I have taken a good look at the Evidence Act 2006 and the Evidence Regulations 2007. The former applies to cases of domestic violence while the latter applies to video evidence collections not mobile telephone evidence collections. Neither apply to cases where NZ Police officers use their NZ Police issued mobile phones to record interviews with parents and other caregivers in relation to child safety and welfare checks carried out by NZ Police in private homes.

I trust this clarifies my request further, however, if you are still not clear what my requirements are then please let me know and I will see what I can do about explaining in greater detail.

Yours faithfully,

M.R.M.

-----Original Message-----

Kia ora M.R.M

Please see attached the response to your OIA request.

Kind regards

Rikki-Lee
PNHQ

=====
==

WARNING

The information contained in this email message is intended for the addressee only and may contain privileged information. It may also be subject to the provisions of section 50 of the Policing Act 2008, which creates an offence to have unlawful possession of Police property. If you are not the intended recipient of this message or have received this message in error, you must not peruse, use, distribute or copy this message or any of its contents.

Also note, the views expressed in this message may not necessarily reflect those of the New Zealand Police. If you have received this message in error, please email or telephone the sender immediately

-

Please use this email address for all replies to this request:
xx@xxxxxxxx.xxx.xxx.xx

Disclaimer: This message and any reply that you make will be published on the internet. Our privacy and copyright policies:
<https://fyi.org.nz/help/officers>

If you find this service useful as an Official Information officer, please ask your web manager to link to us from your organisation's OIA or LGOIMA page.

-