James Macey
fyi-request-14251-2@…

Dear Mr Macey

Request for information   IR-01-20-36968

Thank you for your online submission dated 6 December 2020 requesting information regarding operating systems in use by the New Zealand Police. You will have noted in our acknowledgement of 7 Dec 2020, that the response in accordance of Section 2 of the Act is due by 25 Jan 2021 due to the Christmas period.

You requested:

1. The number of devices in use running non-server Windows NT operating systems, broken down by version name (e.g. XP, Vista, 7, 10).

2. The number of devices in use running Windows Server operating systems, broken down by the version (e.g. 2003, 2003 R2, 2019).

3. The number of devices in use running macOS or Mac OS X, broken down either by minor version (e.g. 10.0, 10.7, 11.0) or release name (e.g. Cheetah, Lion, Big Sur).

4. The number of devices in use running iOS or iPadOS, broken down by major version (e.g. iOS 10, iOS 12, iOS 14) and by device type (tablet or phone).

5. The number of devices in use running Android, broken down by both device type (tablet or phone) and one of:

   a. minor version for major versions prior to 5.0 and major version for versions 5 and up, or;

   b. version name (e.g. Nougat, Oreo, Pie).

6. The number of devices in use running Linux, broken down by distribution and version.

7. The number of devices in use running any other operating system (e.g. Windows Embedded), with version information to an extent similar to that requested in (1) through (6).

8. (1) through (7) should sum to the total number of computers, tablets, phones and servers in use by the New Zealand Police. This request includes devices owned and leased by the New Zealand Police, as well as any instances of operating systems running in the cloud (for example, through Amazon Web Services EC2).

Police has a small range of devices (including Android) in our wider environment that are not managed centrally. As such, we are unable to confirm specific operating systems for those devices.

If you are not satisfied with my response to your request, you have the right to ask the Office of the Ombudsman to seek an investigation and review of my decision.

Yours sincerely,
