

Physical Profiling Indicators

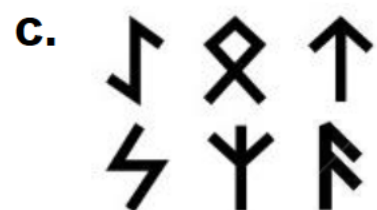

- Shaven hair "Skin head" appearance
- Camouflage clothing or equipment (tactical / military style)
- Steel-toed combat boots
- Tattoos which may consist of the following symbols /slogans
- Clothing, baggage, books or other with any of the following symbols

Nazis Symbology – (l-r) the SS Bolts, Swastika, Totenkopf aka Deaths Head skull, the Iron Cross, and the Schwarz Sonne aka Sonnerad aka the Black Sun, the Triskele aka triskelion

Eagles – (l-r) Reichsadler ('Imperial Eagle' of Nazi Germany), the Haast eagle (used by NZ Nationalist 'Dominion Movement'), swooping eagle (used by white supremacist group 'Vanguard America')

Runic alphabet* – used to portray the characters significance, on clothing or tattoos. Easily recognised by angular characters (as pictured).

Other Norse Symbology – (l-r) the Valknot*, and Wolfsangel.

Celtic Cross* – common white supremacist symbol. Their version consists of a square and a cross.

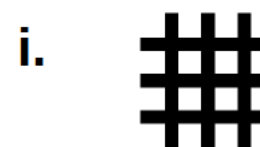

Aryan Fist – represents defiance, unity and power. Used to signify 'white pride' or 'white power'.

Confederate Flag* – battle flag of the confederacy during the US Civil War, adopted by right wing extremists / white supremacists

Crossed Hammers aka Hammerskins – symbol of one of the oldest skinhead groups in the US; has groups in other countries including NZ

Triple Cross – historically the symbol of the Iron Guard, a fascist political party from Romania in the early 20th century; now used by the extreme right-wing.

Flash and Circle – first used by the British Union of Fascists (BUF); now used by the extreme right-wing / to express fascist ideals.

Kolovrat – a Slavic pagan symbol now used by white supremacists

This document is the property of New Zealand Police and as such must be handled, stored and disseminated in accordance with the Security in NZ Government Departments procedures applicable to its security classification. Unauthorised possession, duplication or transmission of the document's contents is an offence under section 50 of the Policing Act 2008, carrying a maximum penalty of 3 months imprisonment, or a fine of $2000.

Not applicable

*also used by non-extremists; symbol should be judged in context

How to ID?

Extreme Right-Wing / White Supremacists Groups

Groups of Interest

New Zealand based right-wing groups:

- a) Right Wing Resistance
- b) Blood & Honour
- c) National Front New Zealand
- d) Azov Battalion
- e) Dominion Movement

Hammerskins

(Hammer Skinheads)

Southern Cross Hammerskins

Crew 38

Supporter chapter of Hammerskins

This document is the property of New Zealand Police and as such must be handled, stored and disseminated in accordance with the Security in NZ Government Departments procedures applicable to its security classification. Unauthorised possession, duplication or transmission of the document's contents is an offence under section 50 of the Policing Act 2008, carrying a maximum penalty of 3 months imprisonment, or a fine of $2000.

Not applicable

Common Words / Phrases

“Blood and Soil” – Nazi slogan linking “white / Aryan blood” to the land.

“For Race and Nation” – a slogan linking white / Aryan “race” to the land / nation

Any reference to the “Aryan” race / nation or “white” nationalism

“You will not replace us”

14 – shorthand for “14 Words” which is a reference to a white supremacist slogan “We must secure the existence of our people and a future for white children”

88* – stands for “Heil Hitler” and used by white supremacists internationally; more commonly used by the Head Hunters in NZ

Any combination of the above – e.g. “1488”

“Deus Vult” – in English “God wills it”; a slogan used by white supremacists, referencing the Crusades

Crew 38 – supporter chapter of Hammerskins

Any reference to extreme right-wing terrorists, such as Anders Breivik, the right-wing terrorist who committed the 2011 attacks in Norway