Tēnā koe John,

Response to your request for Official Information

On 13 July 2021, you requested from the Human Rights Commission (“the Commission”) all correspondence between the HRC and the group Speak Up For Women, particularly involving the HRC's PRISM report.

On 10 August 2012, we notified you that we required an extension of time to provide you that information.

Please now see attached a copy of the information you requested. Some information has been withheld to protect the privacy of natural persons and for administrative reasons (for example some email signatures have been removed).

Alternative avenues

If you are unhappy with this response, under the Official Information Act you are entitled to complain to the Ombudsman’s Office. Information about how to make a complaint is available at www.ombudsman.parliament.nz or on freephone 0800 802 602.

If you have any further queries about this response, please feel free to contact me directly.

Nāku noa, nā
