Caveats for the data:

- 2021* indicates the calendar year to date.
- The wait time for a citizenship ceremony is the period between the application being approved and ceremony date.
- Some of this data has been manually entered into our systems so is subject to user error and may differ slightly from other sources.
- This data only includes those who attended in-person ceremonies, it does not include the many people in 2020 who were mailed a certificate in lieu of attending a ceremony due to COVID-19.
- Average – Is calculated by adding together all of the week days taken for all applicants to have a ceremony, then dividing by the number of ceremonies applications.
- Median – The middle value of week days taken when listing the wait time for a ceremony from the highest to lowest number of days.
- Maximum – The applicants that waited the longest number of week days to get a ceremony.
- Minimum – The applicants that waited the least amount of week days to get a ceremony
