Re: Official Information Act Request – Talking Points from Jim Green’s Interview

Kia ora David

Thank you for your request for information under the Official Information Act 1982.

You asked:

Please release all communications (including emails) and documents that relate to any talking points for Jim Green’s media engagement with Morning Report (published 3 August 2021) about the nursing strike and court proceedings re life preserving services.

Response is as follows:

The All District Health Boards media release (linked below) provided by Spiro Anastasiou, was the basis for the information discussed in the interview. No other speaking notes were prepared for the interview.
