Kia ora Shazly,

Thanks for your response. I appreciate you telling us that you have been asking questions for Max. He is one of the worst spreaders of misinformation and malicious posts about staff and others. I think it might be a good idea to cut him off. He of all people knows how to ask questions if he wants to as a resident. He doesn't need a Councillor doing it for him. I don't think any of this is good for anyone's mental health, including the staff who continue to publicly be attacked by these clowns.

Nga mihi,
Josh

PS I understand that you are not going to respond as per your previous email, but it was important for me to reply.

Hi Josh

I was actually planning not to engage in this anymore. To answer your question, I have only asked 2 or 3 questions maximum for him since I got elected. I will check with him why he was bragging about this. Again I will say this, I am not part of misinformation spreading of the Council. I do not want any allegations. I have stayed out of all the issues. This is seriously disturbing and affecting my mental health.

I am not going to be responding to anyone's emails regarding this anymore.

Regards
Shazly

> Let's be clear Chris and let the other Councillors know what took place at the Chief Executive's Employment Subcommittee meeting on the 16th of August. You came into the meeting, requested the confidential meeting papers and copied down the survey results on a note pad verbatim. I called you out for what you were doing and you denied it. I then made it very clear I knew what you were doing, including which page you were copying from. You then apprehensively acknowledged that my assertion was correct and then left the meeting. Both Mark and Max then magically tweaked their messaging about the staff survey results. A coincidence? I for one am sick of your lies and manipulation. You aren't fooling anyone but yourself.
