Dear Mr McMillan

ACC is not able to provide the information you requested

Thank you for your request of 12 November 2010, asking for the following information under the Official Information Act 1982.

'A dataset of all road accidents that you hold records for, including, if at all possible, any of the following: the time and date, location, type of vehicles involved and severity of the incident, and any other qualitative data. A snapshot of the previous year would be sufficient.'

ACC declines to provide this information as it does not exist at the level of detail sought. This decision complies with section 18(e) of the Act.

While ACC is unable to provide this information, the Ministry of Transport does publish comprehensive and up-to-date crash information on its website, www.transport.govt.nz. This may be helpful.

ACC is happy to answer your questions

Please call me on 04 816 4695 if you would like to talk about this letter. I'll be happy to answer any questions or, if you have any concerns, work with you to resolve these.
