

NOTICE OF APPOINTMENT

National Ethics Advisory Committee

Pursuant to section 16 of the New Zealand Public Health and Disability Act 2000, the Associate Minister of Health has appointed:

Professor John McMillan as Health Research Council nominee and Chair,

Hansa Patel as a health researcher member,

Nora Parore as a Māori member with health research expertise, and

Shannon Hanrahan as a Māori member to the National Ethics Advisory Committee for three-year terms of office commencing on the date of their letters of appointment.

The above appointees comprise the membership of the National Ethics Advisory Committee alongside Ms Elizabeth Richards, Dr Hope Tupara, Dr Dana Wensley, Dr Mary-Anne Woodnorth, Dr Penny Haworth, Dr Cindy Towns, Dr Vanessa Jordan and Mr Gordon Jackman.

Northern A Health and Disability Ethics Committee

Pursuant to section 11 of the New Zealand Public Health and Disability Act 2000, the Associate Minister of Health has reappointed:

Catherine Garvey as a layperson member with expertise in law and appointed her as Chair to the Northern A Health and Disability Ethics Committee for a three-year term of office commencing on the date of her letter of appointment.

The Associate Minister of Health has also appointed:

Dr Leonie Walker as a layperson member with experience in health and disability service provision,

Jade Scott as a non-layperson member with expertise in the provision of observational and/or intervention studies, and

Jonathan Darby as a layperson member with expertise in law and ethical reasoning to the Northern A Health and Disability Ethics Committee for three-year terms of office commencing on the date of their letters of appointment.

The above (re)appointees comprise the membership of the Northern A Health and Disability Ethics Committee alongside Dr Kate Parker, Dr Michael Myer and Dr Sotera Catapang.

Northern B Health and Disability Ethics Committee

Pursuant to section 11 of the New Zealand Public Health and Disability Act 2000, the Associate Minister of Health has reappointed:

Kate O'Connor as Chair and as a layperson member with expertise in ethical and moral reasoning, and

Leesa Russell as a layperson member with expertise in the design and conduct of intervention studies to the Northern B Health and Disability Ethics Committee for three-year terms of office commencing on the date of their letters of appointment.

The Associate Minister of Health has also appointed:

Maxine Shortland as a layperson member with expertise in the design and conduct of observational studies,

Barry Taylor as a non-layperson with expertise in the design and conduct of observational studies, and

Dr Gabrielle Jenkin as a non-layperson member with expertise in the design and conduct of intervention/observational studies to the Northern B Health and Disability Ethics Committee for three-year terms commencing on the date of their letters of appointment.

The above (re)appointees comprise the membership of the Northern B Health and Disability Ethics Committee alongside Ms Stephanie Pollard and Ms Susan Sherrard.

Southern Health and Disability Ethics Committee

Pursuant to section 11 of the New Zealand Public Health and Disability Act 2000, the Associate Minister of Health has appointed:

Anthony Fallon as Chair and as a layperson member with experience and expertise in the perspectives of consumers of health and disability services, and the community, and

Amy Henry as a non-layperson member with experience and expertise in the design and conduct of observational studies to the Southern Health and Disability Ethics Committee for three-year terms commencing on the date of their letters of appointment.

The Associate Minister of Health has also reappointed:

Dr Devonie Waaka as a non-layperson member with expertise in intervention studies and as a member who brings an awareness and understanding of te reo Māori and tikanga Māori, and

Dr Mira Harrison-Woolyrcch as a non-layperson member with expertise in the provision of observational and intervention studies to the Southern Health and Disability Ethics Committee for one-year terms of office commencing on the date of their letters of appointment.

All the above (re)appointees comprise the membership of the Southern Health and Disability Ethics Committee alongside Dr Paul Chin, Mr Dominic Fitchett and Dr Sarah Gunningham.

Dated at this 27 day of Aug 2021.

Hon Peeni Henare
Associate Minister of Health

