Caveats to information that has been released

Data was extracted from National Border Solution (NBS) on 17 November 2021 at 2:30pm.

Since NBS is an operational system these results are subject to change. So, this data is captured at a specific time mentioned above, and may be subject to change.

Due to the nature of the system and our view of the data, positive cases are excluded from these numbers as historically they were transferred to Auckland.

Each room in a set of conjoint rooms will be counted.

As stated, the average given for Distinction Hamilton in October 2021 is for the first 10 days of the month, since it was converted to a quarantine facility after that. This was done as requested in the original question.
