Dear Ti

Thank you for your Official Information Act 1982 (OIA) request of 19 November 2021 in which you wrote:

Thank you for your reply to my OIA request for "all advice and communications to the Minister about the Police's Tactical Response Model." For your internal purposes, that request number was OIA 2021-265. In your response, you stated that you have identified five briefings that fit the description of my request and that these will be made available publicly on the Police website in the coming weeks.

Please provide me with the titles of each of these briefings and the dates on which they were presented to you.

Please provide me with the date on which you intend to publish these documents and their expected location on the Police website.

I refer to the table below, which provides the titles of each of the advice documents I received relating to the Tactical Response Model.

Title	Date received
BR/21/66 Frontline safety improvement	06/08/2021
IPR/21/216 Frontline safety improvement – detailed financial implications	13/08/2021
IPR/21/233 Consultation and Engagement for Police's Frontline Safety Proposals	03/09/2021
IPR/21/238 Investing in Police Frontline Safety – supporting points for Cabinet Committee	07/09/2021
BR/21/101 Frontline Safety – Implementation of the Tactical Response Model	29/10/2021

These have recently been published on the following section of the New Zealand Police website:

<https://www.police.govt.nz/about-us/publication/proactive-release-papers-relating-tactical-response-model>.

I apologise for the administrative error that has seen my response to your request delayed.

Yours sincerely
