Hi Adrienne

Yes I think its either 1.7% COI or June Qtr CPI 1.3%. As stated in my response on CSSF I think the annual CPI rate of 3.3% is overstated (low 2020 June qtr after main lockdown).

Given scholarships map to fees then 1.7% seems the right way to go.

Happy to discuss.

Hi Tim and Bridget,

What should we use for the cost of living increase for scholarships this year? Pass on the COI we have received from Govt?

Morena Adrienne

Could you let me know if we have the confirmed cost of living increases for the UoADS and sub-doctoral scholarships for 2022. We have been using the following in projections but it would be great to get the actual confirmed amounts.

UoADS - $28,800.00 pa

Sub Doctoral - $13,655.00 pa
