Reappointment and promotion to Presiding Member to the Lottery Northland Community Committee

As the Minister responsible for the Lottery distribution committees, I am pleased to let you know that I have reappointed and promoted you to Presiding Member of the Lottery Northland Community Committee. Your new term of office is from 14 November 2022 to 13 November 2025.

Commitment and fees

My expectation is that you will attend two one-day meetings each year, that you will need to spend around eight hours preparing for each meeting, and that you will undertake any other additional duties associated with being the Presiding Member. You will receive a $313 daily meeting fee, up to $156.50 daily reading fee, and $78.25 for conference calls. These fees are set under the requirements of the Cabinet Fees Framework [CO (19)1] for Group 4 Level 4 bodies.

Appointment of a new member and a reappointment to the Committee

I have appointed Katherine Clarke as a new member. Her term of office will be from 14 November 2022 to 13 November 2025. If you wish to welcome Ms Clarke to the Committee, she can be emailed at 9(2)(a) or phoned on 9(2)(a).

I have reappointed Jonny Gritt as a member. His new term of office will be from 14 November 2022 to 13 November 2025.

Conflicts of interest

If at any stage during your term of office you feel you may have a conflict of interest or probity issue, please bring this promptly to my attention. Where a conflict of interest arises, I will assess if the conflict can be managed and may consider your continuing membership of the Committee.

Provisions on reappointment, continuing in office and resignations

While Te Kawa Mataaho Public Service Commission guidelines indicate that in general members can be reappointed for a further term, it is important to note that there is no guarantee of a further term of office.

You also need to be aware that if your term of office expires before you are reappointed, replaced, or resign, you will continue in office until one of those decisions is made.

If you do need to resign at any point during your term, you must advise me in writing including when your resignation is effective from. A courtesy copy of your correspondence should also be provided to the secretariat.

Other matters

The secretariat has been advised of your reappointment and promotion. If you have any questions about your reappointment, please contact Karuna Pandey at the Department of Internal Affairs at karuna.pandey@dia.govt.nz.

Formal acceptance of your reappointment and promotion

I would appreciate it if you could formally accept your reappointment by completing the enclosed acknowledgement slip and emailing it to appointments@dia.govt.nz.

I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate you on your reappointment and promotion. Your knowledge and experience will benefit the Committee. I wish you well for your term of office.

Ngā mihi

Hon Jan Tinetti
Minister of Internal Affairs

Acceptance of reappointment and promotion as Presiding Member of the Lottery Northland Community Committee

I confirm I agree to be reappointed and promoted as Presiding Member of the Lottery Northland Community Committee in accordance with the terms and conditions set out in the letter confirming my appointment.

I understand the terms and conditions of my appointment as set out in the letter advising me of my appointment. I agree that, as a member of the Lottery Northland Community Committee, I will operate within these terms and conditions.

While Te Kawa Mataaho Public Service Commission guidelines indicate that in general members can be reappointed for a further term, it is important to note that there is no guarantee of a further term of office.

You also need to be aware that if your term of office expires before you are reappointed, replaced, or resign, you will continue in office until one of those decisions is made.

If you do need to resign at any point during your term, you must advise me in writing including when your resignation is effective from. A courtesy copy of your correspondence should also be provided to the secretariat.

Other matters

The secretariat has been advised of your promotion. If you have any questions about your appointment, please contact Karuna Pandey at the Department of Internal Affairs at karuna.pandey@dia.govt.nz.

Formal acceptance of your appointment

I would appreciate it if you could formally accept your appointment by completing the enclosed acknowledgement slip and emailing it to appointments@dia.govt.nz.

I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate you on your appointment. Your knowledge and experience will benefit the Committee. I wish you well for your term of office.

Reappointment to the Lottery Bay of Plenty / Gisborne Community Committee

As the Minister responsible for the Lottery distribution committees, I am pleased to let you know that I have reappointed you as a member of the Lottery Bay of Plenty / Gisborne Community Committee. Your new term of office is from 14 November 2022 to 13 November 2025.

Commitment and fees

My expectation is that you will attend two one-day meetings each year and will need to spend around eight hours preparing for each meeting. You will receive a $232 meeting fee for each full day meeting, up to $116 as a reading fee, and $58 for conference calls. These fees are set under the requirements of the Cabinet Fees Framework [CO (19)1] for Group 4 Level 4 bodies.

Conflicts of interest

If at any stage during your term of office you feel you may have a conflict of interest or probity issue, please bring this promptly to the attention of the Presiding Member who will decide how to best manage the issue. In the event the issue cannot be managed effectively, I expect to be informed at the earliest opportunity and may consider your continuing membership of the Committee.

Appointment to the Lottery Manawatu / Wanganui Community Committee

As the Minister responsible for the Lottery distribution committees, I am pleased to let you know that I have appointed you as a member of the Lottery Manawatu / Wanganui Community Committee. Your term of office is from 14 November 2022 to 13 November 2025. You will be joining Presiding Member Stephen David Paewai, and fellow members Michelle Yvette Fannin, Johanna Julene Wood and Nola Fox.

Commitment and fees

My expectation is that you will attend two one-day meetings each year and will need to spend around eight hours preparing for each meeting. You will receive a $232 meeting fee for each full day meeting, up to $116 as a reading fee, and $58 for conference calls. These fees are set under the requirements of the Cabinet Fees Framework [CO (19)1] for Group 4 Level 4 bodies.

Background information

The Lottery distribution committees are established under the Gambling Act 2003 and are responsible for distributing the profits of New Zealand lotteries such as Instant Kiwi, Keno and Lotto. The community committees make decisions on grants that will benefit communities in their region.

Conflicts of interest

If at any stage during your term of office you feel you may have a conflict of interest or probity issue, please bring this promptly to the attention of the Presiding Member who will decide how to best manage the issue. In the event that the issue cannot be managed effectively, I expect to be informed at the earliest opportunity and may consider your continuing membership of the Committee.

Provisions on reappointment, continuing in office and resignations

While Te Kawa Mataaho Public Service Commission guidelines indicate that in general members can be reappointed for a further term, it is important to note that there is no guarantee of a further term of office.

You also need to be aware that if your term of office expires before you are reappointed, replaced or resign, you will continue in office until one of those decisions is made.

If you do need to resign at any point during your term, you must advise me in writing including when your resignation is effective from. A courtesy copy of your correspondence should be provided to the Presiding Member and the secretariat.

Other matters

Appointment to the Lottery Canterbury / Kaikōura Community Committee

As the Minister responsible for the Lottery distribution committees, I am pleased to let you know I have appointed you as a member of the Lottery Canterbury / Kaikōura Community Committee. Your term of office is from 14 November 2022 to 13 November 2025. You will be joining Presiding Member Elizabeth Jean Bain Lovell, and fellow members Kerry Maxwell Stevens, Marie (Claire) Waghorn and Sina Kitiona Cotter Tait.

Commitment and fees

My expectation is that you will attend two one-day meetings each year and will need to spend around eight hours preparing for each meeting. You will receive a $232 meeting fee for each full day meeting, up to $116 as a reading fee, and $58 for conference calls. These fees are set under the requirements of the Cabinet Fees Framework [CO (19)1] for Group 4 Level 4 bodies.

Background information

The Lottery distribution committees are established under the Gambling Act 2003 and are responsible for distributing the profits of New Zealand lotteries such as Instant Kiwi, Keno and Lotto. The community committees make decisions on grants that will benefit communities in their region.

Conflicts of interest

If at any stage during your term of office you feel you may have a conflict of interest or probity issue, please bring this promptly to the attention of the Presiding Member who will decide how to best manage the issue. In the event that the issue cannot be managed effectively, I expect to be informed at the earliest opportunity and may consider your continuing membership of the Committee.

Provisions on reappointment, continuing in office and resignations

While Te Kawa Mataaho Public Service Commission guidelines indicate that in general members can be reappointed for a further term, it is important to note that there is no guarantee of a further term of office.

You also need to be aware that if your term of office expires before you are reappointed, replaced or resign, you will continue in office until one of those decisions is made.

If you do need to resign at any point during your term, you must advise me in writing including when your resignation is effective from. A courtesy copy of your correspondence should be provided to the Presiding Member and the secretariat.

Other matters

The Presiding Member has been provided with your contact details and may contact you to welcome you on to the Committee. You will also be contacted by the secretariat to discuss administrative arrangements including for payment of fees and expenses.

Formal acceptance of your appointment

I would appreciate it if you could formally accept your appointment by completing the enclosed acknowledgement slip and emailing it to appointments@dia.govt.nz.

If you have any questions about your appointment, please contact Karuna Pandey at the Department of Internal Affairs at karuna.pandey@dia.govt.nz.

I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate you on your appointment. Your knowledge and experience will benefit the Committee. I wish you well for your term of office.

Reappointment to the Lottery Individuals with Disabilities Committee

As the Minister responsible for the Lottery distribution committees, I am pleased to let you know that I have reappointed you as a member of the Lottery Individuals with Disabilities Committee. Your new term of office will be from 14 November 2022 to 13 November 2025.

Commitment and fees

My expectation is that you will attend two one-day meetings each year and will need to spend around eight hours preparing for each meeting. You will receive $232 meeting fee for each full day meeting, up to $116 as a reading fee, and $58 for conference calls. These fees are set under the requirements of the Cabinet Fees Framework [CO (19)1] for Group 4 Level 4 bodies.

Conflicts of interest

If at any stage during your term of office you feel you may have a conflict of interest or probity issue, please bring this promptly to the attention of the Presiding Member who will decide how to best manage the issue. In the event the issue cannot be managed effectively, I expect to be informed at the earliest opportunity and may consider your continuing membership of the Committee.

Provisions on reappointment, continuing in office and resignations

While Te Kawa Mataaho Public Service Commission guidelines indicate that in general members can be reappointed for a further term, it is important to note that there is no guarantee of a further term of office.

You also need to be aware that if your term of office expires before you are reappointed, replaced or resign, you will continue in office until one of those decisions is made.

If you do need to resign at any point during your term, you must advise me in writing including when your resignation is effective from. A courtesy copy of your correspondence should be provided to the Presiding Member and the secretariat.

Other matters

The secretariat and the Presiding Member have been advised of your reappointment. If you have any questions about your reappointment, please contact Karuna Pandey at the Department of Internal Affairs at karuna.pandey@dia.govt.nz.

Formal acceptance of your appointment

I would appreciate it if you could formally accept your reappointment by completing the enclosed acknowledgement slip and emailing it to appointments@dia.govt.nz.

I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate you on your reappointment. Your knowledge and experience will continue to benefit the Committee. I wish you well for your new term of office.
