Thank you for your Official Information Act 1982 (OIA) request of 20th February 2023, in which you asked for information regarding the Royal New Zealand Police College (RNZPC) Independent Advisory Board.

- internal communications were sent out asking for staff to distribute to their external networks. Channels included: People Leaders' Brief, District Communications mailout, Pānui (on TenOne), and local internal newsletters.
- staff members were also encouraged to communicate the information out to their own networks.

Shortlisting or appointment have yet to occur, however Police's intention at this stage is to appoint between six and eight members.

6. "Please supply the pay rate"

Once the Board has been appointed, we will assess the Board's planned work against the Crown bodies fees framework matrix and confirm a meeting fee.

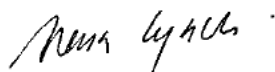

The framework is publicly available here: <https://dpmc.govt.nz/publications/co-22-2-revised-fees-framework-members-appointed-bodies-which-crown-has-interest-html>

7. "term of reference/job description of this role"

Police intends that Board members would serve an initial term of two years. As above, the Board has not yet been appointed. The expectation is that the Board will confirm its terms of reference when it meets, but a general description of the role which the Board will play is set out here: <https://www.police.govt.nz/about-us/programmes-and-initiatives/rnzpc-independent-advisory-board>

You have the right to ask the Ombudsman to review my decision if you are not satisfied with the response to your request. Information about how to make a complaint is available at: www.ombudsman.parliament.nz.
