Hi Matt, Hugh

The excitement of this paper continues!

s 9(2)(f)(iv)

I expect this it will take at least a couple of weeks for the paper to be updated (the paper may also need to go out for Min consultation again), which means it will go to DEV later than 24 August (exact date TBC).

Happy to discuss this further if need be.

Yes, I definitely think it would be worthwhile tidying up the implementation section. Could you please liaise with Waka Kotahi on this and send through a new version of the paper and/or speaking points by COP Wednesday 17 August?

Kia ora Seb,

Haha all good!

Do you know why it has been deferred?

Do you think there would be scope for us to tidy up the implementation section just so we can check in with Waka Kotahi and legal here to see if we can do a staggered approach to implementation, like what has been provided in the speaking points (I understand this was the idea all along)?

Kia ora both

Despite Hugh's heroic work yesterday with the Accessible Streets printing, I've been advised this paper has been deferred to DEV on 24 August.

The good news is Cabinet Office will hold onto the documents so we don't have to print anything further.

Hi Seb

I attached the revised Accessible Streets Cabinet paper incorporating feedback received through departmental consultation. s 9(2)(f)(iv)

s 9(2)(f)(iv)

There are no changes to the RIA and I've attached the existing PDF version of that.

I'm assuming these are for the office's and the Minister's review over the weekend. I will obviously finalise and remove tracked changes the documents and can combine PDFs next week to get ready for ministerial consultation. Let me know if there's any problems with this, I'll be around till 5!

Kia ora e HanLing,

Apologies for the delay in sending this through to you!

Attached are the tracked and clean versions of the Cab paper and some responses to the queries are in red below 😊

We also need to update the RIS to reflect the new options in the Cabinet paper, so I will talk to Waka Kotahi about this work and the expected timeframe of this and whether it can be done by early next week (to enable lodging on Thursday 8 Dec).

I don't think the RIS not being with the Office yet should be a barrier to Ministerial consultation, but let us know if this will be an issue.

It would be great to have a quick chat about this too if you have time this afternoon!

Kia ora my long suffering M&S stars,

Unfortunately, I'm about to put a spanner in your day, though this will consequently eliminate the need for you and WK to be on call tomorrow/this evening.

s 9(2)(g)(i)

This will mean a delay to Cabinet consideration, i.e. we won't be going to DEV on 23 Nov. Presently, there is the possibility we could take it to the final ENV of the year (i.e. 15 Dec ENV) if you're able to provide us the revised paper next week. If that's not possible, we will have to look towards early next year.

s 9(2)(g)(i)

s 9(2)(f)(iv)

I appreciate that this has been a long saga of revisions but if you could first please advise whether it's possible to provide a revised Cabinet paper to the office in line with the above comments next week, we can work from there. Thank you again for your work on this and happy to discuss further if/as needed.

I will be around to discuss any feedback by from 6-7 s 9(2)(a) Can look to action anything after this if it needs urgent attention. But we may be limited somewhat by our WK colleagues availability.

Hugh - can you get in touch with WK and let them know that we may need their input first thing tomorrow (or tonight if they are available).

Kia ora e HanLing,

Thanks for the heads up!

s 9(2)(a)

What I can do though is check my emails when I get home s 9(2)(a) and work to address these, however, depending on the nature of them I may need input from my Waka Kotahi colleague which could mean that they can't be addressed until Thursday anyway.

I hope that is ok!

Happy to discuss 😊

Ngā mihi

Hugh

Kia ora,

I wanted to flag in advance what I expect the next two days will look like in terms of Cabinet paper finalisation and lodgement. I'm keen to ensure we are comfortable with the process ahead as timing will be tight and I will be lodging six (!!) Cabinet papers on behalf of the Minister myself by 10am Thursday 17 Nov.

In terms of remaining feedback, the deadline for Ministerial consultation on your draft Cabinet paper, Accessible Streets Regulatory Package – Final Policy Decisions, is COP Wed 16 Nov. While most feedback should have come back from the various offices, there is still the possibility further feedback could come through up until COP tomorrow, which will require your and the Office's review and action (where appropriate).

As such, I will need to ensure the policy lead(s) for your Cabinet paper is/are on call Wednesday evening (e.g. 5 – 7pm) 16 Nov. We may not need all this time but it is crucial someone is on standby if necessary.

Ideally we will have all changes addressed by Wednesday evening, to enable lodgement later on Wednesday. However, it is more than likely more changes/amendments will be required early Thursday morning, particularly if the Minister and/or other relevant Ministers need to consider the revisions overnight on Wed 16 Nov.

To ensure we have changes made as early as possible on Thursday 17 Nov, I will need to ensure the policy lead(s) for your Cabinet paper is/are on call Thursday morning (e.g. 8 – 10am) 17 Nov.

I appreciate the above times sit outside general policy hours but given the circumstances, this will be critical to ensure we can meet lodgement deadlines and our desire Cabinet committee timeframes. Given the high volume of papers aiming for consideration before the end of the year, we have little leeway on seeking a later Cabinet committee date.

In your case, Hugh, the above is slightly more relaxed as I have already lodged a final draft version in CabNet and I do not consider we will receive much more feedback/changes from ours and the other Offices. However, as you are well familiar, one can never know so I consider it good to send this to everyone who has a Cabinet paper for lodgement this week.

If you have any questions, happy to discuss tomorrow. Thank you for all your hard work to get to this point, it is greatly appreciated. ☺
