Yes, saw it - good balanced coverage. Seems like the reception online has been positive so far. Library Journal here in the US picked up the story: <https://www.infodocket.com/2021/07/12/national-library-of-new-zealand-is-donating-600000-books-to-internet-archive-ia-will-digitize-and-make-copies-available-online/>

As discussed, we plan to retweet anything NLNZ puts out acknowledging gratitude for the donation... keep it simple.
