Dear Ken

Request for Information

I refer to your Official Information Act 1982 (OIA) request dated 26 September 2023, in which you requested the following information:

1. Do Police have planned reveals of any more special / community vehicles in the future?
2. Do Police have any plans to purchase or reveal any other brands or models of European or Japanese vehicles that the public are not likely to have seen?
3. If there are plans to reveal or purchase any such vehicles, could I please be provided any conceptual artwork or imagery?

I also refer to your email dated 27 September 2023, in which you clarified your request:

Please only information regarding vehicles that Police have already purchased or committed to purchasing, further information such as unit amounts, pricing, or other commercial data will not be relevant.

Response

Police does not currently plan to reveal any new special or community vehicles in the future. Police has not purchased, committed to purchase, or is planning to reveal any other brands or models of European or Japanese vehicles that the public is not likely to have seen before.

Police does not hold any information to support or respond to your request. Therefore, your request has been refused under section 18(g) of the OIA, as the information is not held by Police.

If you are not satisfied with any aspect of the decisions made in this response you are entitled to complain to the Office of the Ombudsman and seek an investigation and review.

Yours sincerely
