

Looking ahead to Public Service and Integrity Week

Next week, Kāinga Ora will focus on Public Service and Integrity Week. This is an opportunity for us to reflect on the part we play in maintaining our democratic institutions, by upholding political neutrality, and being open and transparent in our mahi.

Our People, Governance and Capability Group has created a series of learning modules and declarations, that we all need to complete. This includes the Conflicts of Interest declaration, via our new Arawhata platform.

To help us navigate each task, there will be plenty of communications during Public Service and Integrity Week. Can everyone please take the time to read the Atamai articles and complete their modules and declarations.
