Dear Ben

Information request – Legislation Programme for 2011 and 2012

Our reference: CAB-15-2012

1 On 23 May 2012 this office received a request from you under the Official Information Act 1982 (“OIA”). You requested:

*“...the 2012 Legislative Programme, as referred to in Cabinet Circular CO (11) 11;
and*

“the 2011 Legislative Programme, as referred to in Cabinet Circular CO (10) 04 .”

2 On 21 June 2012 I extended the time limit for responding to your request to 2 July 2012 under section 15A(1)(b) of the OIA.

3 I hold information falling within the scope of your request. I am, however, withholding this information under:

- 3.1 section 9(2)(f)(iv) of the OIA, to maintain constitutional conventions for the time being which protect the confidentiality of advice tendered by Ministers and officials;
- 3.2 section 9(2)(ba)(ii) of the OIA, to protect information which is subject to an obligation of confidence where the making available of the information would be likely otherwise to damage the public interest;
- 3.3 section 9(2)(g)(i) of the OIA, to maintain the effective conduct of public affairs through the free and frank expression of opinions by or between Ministers or officials in the course of their duty;
- 3.4 section 9(2)(j) of the OIA, to enable a Minister of the Crown holding the information to carry on, without prejudice or disadvantage, negotiations.
- 3.5 I do not consider that there is any public interest in the releasing of the information that would be sufficient to override the reasons set out above for withholding it.

- 5 The government and the House of Representatives frequently release information about the progress of legislation. This information takes many forms, including public statements by Ministers, the publication of legislation and updates from the Office of the Clerk of the House. For your information please find enclosed a sample of the publicly available information, namely:
- 5.1 the progress of legislation report produced by the Office of the Clerk of the House, which you can find at <http://www.parliament.nz/en-NZ/PB/Legislation/Bills/Progress/0/4/8/00HOOOCProgressLegislation1-Progress-of-Legislation.htm>;
  - 5.2 a print out of search results from the New Zealand Legislation website <http://www.legislation.co.nz> showing the statutes enacted in 2011;
  - 5.3 a press release from Hon Simon Power, then the Acting Leader of the House, providing an overview of legislation from the 49th Parliament.
- 6 Please note that you have the right to complain about this decision to the Office of the Ombudsmen under section 28(3) of the OIA.

Yours sincerely

Rebecca Kitteridge
Secretary of the Cabinet

49th Parliament passes 293 Government bills

The 49th Parliament passed 293 Government bills, the Acting Leader of the House, Simon Power, said today.

Parliament rose last night for the general election on November 26, and will be dissolved on October 20.

Some 293 Government bills received the Royal assent, and as of today 18 further bills are awaiting assent. The Governor-General will consider those 18 in the coming weeks. Also receiving the Royal assent during the 49th Parliament were two members' bills, two local bills, and five private bills.

The House sat for 266 days, and there were 30 urgency motions.

Ministers answered 3,017 oral questions, with Deputy Leader and Finance Minister Bill English answering the most at 481. That does not include those he answered on behalf of the Prime Minister.

As at October 6, Ministers had been asked 73,207 written questions, the most going to Education Minister Anne Tolley, 18,170, Social Development Minister Paula Bennett, 10,966, and Housing and Fisheries Minister Phil Heatley, 6,217.

There were 1,046 Select Committee reports, including 117 by Finance and Expenditure, 109 by Commerce, and 97 by Health.

Other statistics:

- Bills introduced: Government 202, member's 42, local 7, private 5.
- Party votes: 2,552
- Petitions reported back: 178.
- Papers presented and published: 807
- Notices of motion: 1,416
- General debates: 59
