Tēnā koe John

I refer to your request received on 24 November 2023, which has been considered under the Official Information Act 1982 (OIA). You requested the following information:

I would like to request a list of vacancy (ministerial appointment only, e.g. board member, Lay member, Trustee etc) that the nomination period has been closed but still under consideration by the Ministry for Culture and Heritage or relevant Minister.

In your list, can you please included [sic] the date that vacancy been advertised, what method you have used to publicly advertise the position, how many application you have received and when the vacancy been closed as well.

As at 27 November 2023, the following appointments are under consideration by the Ministry:

- Arts Council of New Zealand Toi Aotearoa – one member/Chair position
- Heritage New Zealand Pouhere Taonga – one member position
- Māori Heritage Council – one Chair and two member positions
- Te Māori Manaaki Taonga Trust – three to five positions
- Broadcasting Commission (NZ On Air) – one Chair position
- National Pacific Media Trust – one Deputy Chair and one Treasurer position
- Sports Tribunal of New Zealand – two member positions
- Integrity in Sport and Recreation Commission - one Chair and six to eight member positions

Appointment processes were on hold during the post-election period, until new Ministers can be briefed. The decision to initiate a public call for nominations is made by the Minister.

Also, I would like to know if you have any future opening in 2024. e.g. the position that will call for nomination or likely to call for nomination in the year of 2024. Also, please supply any member's term that expired on the 2024.

The table below outlines the positions arising from members terms expiring in 2024, alongside potential additional openings. The Ministry does not control how many of these will involve a formal public call for nominations; this happens at the discretion of Ministers.
