Dear Neonlightsupermarket

OFFICIAL INFORMATION ACT REQUEST 24.02

I refer to the Official Information Act request dated 3 January 2024 for information relating to LAWS and LLAW paper stats. You have specifically requested:

Would you be able to provide for the following courses in 2022 and 2023:

- (1) every 300-level LAWS or LLAW paper,
- (2) the five 200-level LAWS papers (LAWS202-LAWS206),
- (3) the three 400-level Honours papers (LAWS410, LAWS420 and LAWS430)

The following data:

- (1) The number of students who completed the paper,
- (2) The grade distribution for students' final scores (broken down by final marks after rounding, e.g 90/100, 86/100), and
- (3) The mean and median final marks for the paper.

The OIA requires that we advise you of our decision on your request no later than 20 working days after the day we received your request. Although we have already extended twice, unfortunately, it will not be possible to meet the extended time limit and we are therefore writing to notify you of an extension of the time to make our decision, to 8 March 2024.

This extension is necessary because consultations necessary to make a decision on your request are such that a proper response cannot reasonably be made within the original time limit. As mentioned in our last letter, the semester has just begun, which is the busiest time of the year for some of our staff members, particularly those working in the Faculties.

You have the right to seek an investigation and review by the Ombudsman of this decision. Information about how to make a complaint is available at www.ombudsman.parliament.nz or freephone 0800 802 602.
