Dear Lee

Request for information

Thank you for your Official Information Act 1982 (OIA) request of 10 June 2024, in which you asked for clarification on a previous response (IR-01-24-5821) regarding whether Police has a Data Universal Numbering System (DUNS or D-U-N-S) number.

I can confirm that the response I provided to you on 6 March 2024 was incorrect. Police is aware that there is an entry on Dun & Bradstreet but cannot comment on the accuracy of the information held by that company.

Please accept my apologies for this error.

You also requested:

Is it not correct that Police/Crown Agents are fiduciaries pursuant to the Secret Commissions Act 1910 ss 5 and 16?

Police does not hold information on what entities are “fiduciaries pursuant to the Secret Commissions Act 1910.” This part of your request is therefore refused under section 18(g) of the OIA, as the information is not held.

You have the right to seek an investigation and review by the Ombudsman of this decision. Information about how to make a complaint is available at www.ombudsman.parliament.nz or freephone 0800 802 602.

Yours sincerely
