Kia ora s9(2)(a) [REDACTED]

Just wanted to check in about Saturday s6(c), s6(d) [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

I also wanted to confirm that there is NO trophy presentation for this match – the Rugby Championship will be presented at the South Africa v Argentina match, and the Bledisloe was won by the All Blacks last weekend

Finally, will get that final guest list over to you by tomorrow morning, just have a couple final outstanding guests.

Many thanks

Hi s9(2)(a)

Great, I'll update the timings on the PM's VIP car.

I'm hoping to get a name by this Thursday or next Monday at the latest.

Thanks for you help

No problem!

A little after 6 would be great – if we aimed for 6:10pm that would be really ideal.

And no problem about the names, if I don't have to give the passes until the day before, then I'm sure we'll have the names by then so I can get them printed, all good!

Thanks also for the reprieve on the guest list, sending next Monday would be great as there are still a few moving pieces.

Many thanks

Good morning s9(2)(a)

Thank you for letting me know and sorry for my slow replies. The office becomes hectic when the PM is in the office and the best time to catch up on admin is Fridays.

Would you recommend the PM arriving just after 6? It will be ideal for the room to be somewhat full when he arrives. He won't be able to arrive earlier as he has a full day, but happy to go with your advice

Haha that is weird numbering, I'm glad I don't have to be the one to locate his seat lol. Spoke with the team and they will be fine with the setting arrangements. s6(c), s6(d)

Unfortunately, we haven't confirmed a staffer as it would usually be s9(2)(a) s6(c), s6(d)

Really sorry if this delays your work. I'll try my best to confirm our staff member. s6(c), s6(d)

No stress, with the attendees list. You can send them on the week of if you need.

Thanks so much for the below .

5:50pm for an arrival time sounds great, bearing in mind that this will be around about the time that the curtain raiser final will finish, so guests will be a bit in and out of the lounge at that time. But, it works well for us, no prob.

s6(c), s6(d)

It would be great to confirm the names of the staffers attending with the PM and his wife, as we will make named VIP lanyards for everyone, which I'll put on a courier to you next week. I also

s6(c), s6(d)

Other than those two action points, the only left that I am aware of is for me to send the final guest list through to you, I have a reminder in my diary to do that on Monday next week, is that ok?

Thank you and likewise. Apologies for my delayed response, it was a really busy time in the office preparing the PM's overseas trip and trying our best to catch up on admin.

Awesome, thank you for sending runsheet. I've got the PM arriving at the stadium at 5:50pm, can you please confirm that this will be ok.

Hope you're doing well. Please see attached the draft version of the event form for the Prime Minister. Let me know if you have any questions at this stage, and I'll look to get further information across to you (particularly the final guest list, and the draft trophy presentation runsheet) as soon as these are complete.

You will notice in the attached that I have listed that we would like to invite Ministers Willis & McClay to the event as well. Do you happen to have contacts in their offices so that I can issue invitations?

Kia ora s9(2)(a)

Great to chat yesterday, thanks for your time.

As discussed, the three moments that we are looking at on 28 September for the All Blacks v Australia game are as follows:

Pre-match, sideline: there is an opportunity for the Prime Minister to join a small number of NZR commercial partners on the side of the field for the anthems and haka. This is a contracted benefit for a couple of our sponsors, and we generally try to reserve an extra 1-2 spots for additional guests. The PM would be escorted by a member of our commercial team directly after the in-lounge formalities (one speech by an NZR rep to welcome everyone to the match, 5 min max, no requirement from the PM) at approx. 6:35pm.

Post-match, visit to the sheds: after the match, our CEO & Chair will be able to escort the Prime Minister and Minister for Sport to the sheds to meet the team. We will need to stay pretty flexible here, as the timing of this (and length of time in the sheds) is dictated by the team and will depend on a number of factors based on what happened on the field (if there were any citations or cards, for example, the team's post-match process prior to a sheds visit takes more time), whether there is a trophy presentation and whether there are any significant injuries (which also result in some post-match processes). The visit usually happens at around 30-40 minutes post-match and lasts for 5-10 minutes.

Post-match, trophy presentation: there is a possibility of a trophy presentation. We won't know for sure until the week of the match, as it will depend on our performance in the Rugby Championship and against Australia in Sydney on 21 September. A trophy presentation will be drafted in advance, so we'll be able to press go and advise you of the plan fairly quickly on the week of the match. It's safe to say that in the event of a presentation:

- It will happen on the field about 7 minutes after the final whistle
- The Prime Minister and 1-2 other dignitaries will be involved (usually an NZR rep and Rugby Australia rep). If it is a trophy presentation for Australia, we may also invite the Australian High Commissioner or similar dignitary to be part of the presentation
- It is usually a pretty simple handshake and hand over scenario, there will be no medals.

Looking forward to receiving that briefing template when you get a chance, no rush on my end!

Many thanks
