I refer to your information request dated 30 September 2024 made under the Official Information Act 1982 (the Act). You have requested the following information:

"I would like to request the grade distributions for the following papers in 2024: LAWS418 and LAWS411. PSYC325, PSYC318.

I would also like to request the grade distributions for the following papers in 2024: PSYC211, PSYC210, PSYC212 and PSYC203."

Subject to the following comments, please see attached the information you have requested.

- the data is correct as at 16 September 2024.
- on occasions where fewer than five students have failed a paper (i.e. received a grade of Fail D, Fail E, Failed Compulsory Assessment or Failed Terms), we have determined that it is necessary to withhold the marks and specific grades for these students to protect their privacy and wellbeing. We consider that withholding this information is necessary to protect against the identity of these students being determined or inferred, and their personal information (i.e. their marks) could be disclosed. We therefore withhold this information pursuant to section 9(2)(a) of the Act.
- please note that the PSYC203 and PSYC211 papers have been offered in Semester 2, 2024. As this teaching period is still ongoing, we do not hold the final mark and grade distributions for these papers yet. Therefore, we decline providing this information pursuant to section 18(g) of the Act, as the information requested is not held by the University.
- in the attached grade and mark distributions, we note that students who withdrew from the papers or received an Aegrotat Pass (not a grade or mark) are excluded from the data.

In the above cases, we consider that good reasons exist for withholding information, and this is not outweighed by other considerations which would make it desirable, in the public interest, to make the information available. If you are not satisfied with our response to your information request, section 28(3) of the Act provides you with the right to ask an Ombudsman to investigate and review this response. However, we would welcome the opportunity to discuss any concerns with you first.

Ngā mihi
