For Internal Affairs this week Brooke announced that parents will soon be able to choose their parent title on their child's birth certificate, so two mums can both be listed as 'mother' etc. This is about personal freedom and gives the diverse families of New Zealand greater choice. Hey [REDACTED]

Just coming back to this one - could we please swap out the background of the same-sex parents graphic for a stock image of lesbian parents with a baby? Otherwise great and not urgent.

Thanks!
