Dear Ms Morse

I refer to your email of 29 September 2015 requesting, under the Official Information Act 1982 (OIA), indication of what equipment has been provided for static display at the past two annual New Zealand Defence Industry Association Forums, and what will be provided this year.

In 2013 the New Zealand Defence Force provided a Medium Heavy Operational Vehicle, and in 2014 provided small arms simulator equipment for static display at the annual New Zealand Defence Industry Forums.

The New Zealand Defence Force is likely to provide small arms simulation equipment again at the 2015 New Zealand Defence Industry Association Forum, however, this has not been confirmed.

I trust this satisfies your request for information.

Yours sincerely

G.R. SMITH
