Dear Lee M

Thank you for your request of 13 August 2016, under the Official Information Act 1982 (the OIA) to Hon Nikki Kaye, Minister for ACC.

As you know, Hon Nikki Kaye is on leave from her responsibilities for health reasons. I am the Acting Minister for ACC until she returns.

In your request, you referred to Section 73 of the Crown Entities Act 2004, which allows the Board of a crown entity to delegate any of the functions or powers of the entity or the board, and requested the following information:

“A copy of the resolution and written notice to the person or persons to whom the ACC Board delegated the functions and powers of the ACC and/or the Board, either generally or specifically, in relation to its statutory review obligations as above mentioned”.

I have been advised that the ACC Board has not delegated the functions and powers of ACC or the Board in relation to its statutory review obligations under Section 73 of the Crown Entities Act 2004.

Your request is therefore declined under section 18 (e) of the OIA, on the ground that the information does not exist.

You have the right to seek an investigation and review by the Ombudsman of my decision to decline your request. Information about how to make a complaint is available at www.ombudsman.parliament.nz or freephone 0800 802 602.

You can expect a response from me to your related request of 22 August 2016 in the next few days.

Yours sincerely

Hon Nathan Guy

Acting Minister for ACC
