Dear Mr Harris

I refer to your email of 30 July 2012, which the Serious Fraud Office (SFO) is treating as a request for information under the Official Information Act 1982.

The information that you have requested relates to the SFO's submission to the Law Commission regarding the Review of Official Information Legislation. Specifically, you requested:

 a copy of your submission

The SFO responded to the Review of Official Information Legislation via a letter dated 9 December 2010. The SFO has not retained a copy of the Law Commission's letter and has not retained drafts of the response. The only information that has been retained is a copy of the response. A copy of that response, dated 9 December 2010, is available online at:

You have the right to request the Ombudsmen to investigate and review the response to your request. The address details are:
