Mike Gendall fyi-request-536-0d815d19@requests.fyi.org.nz

Dear Mr Gendall

REQUEST FOR INFORMATION

I refer to your e-mail dated 1 September 2012 in which you made the following request to Police:

"According to your records, how many requests under the Official Information Act are subject to Ombudsman complaint as at the date of this request? What was the wording of the request that become subject of an Ombudsman complaint? According to your records, what is the age of the complaint?"

I have considered your request in accordance with the Official Information Act 1982.

Police Legal Services logs and manages complaints made against Police to the Ombudsman and they are recorded on the Legal Services case management database. The database was established in July 2011 and provides some indication of the likely number of current OIA complaints.

However, some complaints initiated prior to the establishment of the database which are still current may not be recorded on the case management database. Further, the database does not record complaints made to the Ombudsman about delays in responding to OIA requests that are deemed to be refusals of the requests. These complaints are not usually notified to Police by the Ombudsman as formal complaints because a swift resolution to the complaint is often possible by responding immediately to the request.

There are currently 31 Ombudsman complaints recorded on the database as at the date of your request on which the Ombudsman has not yet formed a final view. The attached document lists the date each complaint was received by Police.

New Zealand Police Legal Services

Your request for the wording of the complaint is not subject to the Official Information Act, as the definition of "official information" does not include information contained in any correspondence or communication between the Office of the Ombudsmen and Police.

Yours sincerely

Ian Bradshaw

Practice Manager
