Dear Mr Johnston,

I am responding on behalf of the University to your request for information. Your initial request was received on the 10th July 2017 and was as follows:

“Can you please provide details of any funding Massey University has received either directly from tobacco companies, or tobacco industry lobbyists, research companies or advocates., received on the 1st April 2016.”

Following a request for clarification, you subsequently amended your request on the 15th July to:

“List of funding from external sources, where the research is related to tobacco. The last ten years will suffice.”

Please see the table below for the information as requested:

PROJECT TITLE	FUNDING SOURCE	FUNDING AMOUNT (EXCL GST)
Tobacco retail impacts and context	University of Otago	$20,000
Changing our view of tobacco dependence: the monoamine oxidase inhibitor story	Health Research Council of New Zealand)	$150,000
A new monoamine oxidase inhibitor from tobacco smoke.	Massey University through PreSeed Accelerator Fund Investment Contract (MBIE) ¹ .	$30,000
Review of Tobacco Control Services	Ministry of Health	$156,652
The UK Centre for Tobacco and Alcohol Studies (UKCTAS). (As a background, the Project builds on the success of UKCTAS by enabling a further 5 years of life for the Centre for research and development in smoking prevention.)	This is an Academic Collaboration Agreement, to which thirteen universities, including Massey, are a party. Under the Agreement, Massey receives funding from the Medical Research Council (UK), on behalf of the following (UK) funders: the British Heart Foundation; Cancer Research UK; Economic and Social Research Council; Medical Research Council; and the	$332,462

¹ Note: Massey sought funding to undertake early stage technology commercialisation activities and part of that funding was passed on to this Project.

	National Institute for Health Research ("Funders").
Evaluation of the Tobacco Excise Increase in New Zealand	Ministry of Health	$254,777.97

I trust this is the information you require.

Yours faithfully
