Dear Mr Carter

Thank you for your email dated 8 August 2017 to the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment (the Ministry) for the following information under the Official Information Act 1982 (the Act):

We request information on an Indonesian Foreign Charter Vessel crew member who apparently killed himself whilst working on a Sanford's FCV vessel recently.

The Ministry does not hold any information in relation to your request. I am therefore declining your request under section 18(e) of the Act as the information does not exist or, despite reasonable efforts to locate it, cannot be found.

We have made inquiries with the Ministry for Primary Industries and Maritime New Zealand in the course of responding to your request, and they have both advised that they do not hold any relevant information.

You are welcome, however, to discuss this matter further with Emma Debreceeny, Senior Advisor Ministerial Services, at Maritime New Zealand via email at: enquiries@maritimenz.govt.nz.

You have the right to seek an investigation and review of our response to your request by the Ombudsman. Information about how to make a complaint is available at <http://www.ombudsman.parliament.nz/> or freephone 0800 802 602.

Yours sincerely

Stu Lumsden
Acting National Manager
Labour Inspectorate
