R v Karel Sroubek aka Jan Antolik: CRI-2013-404-328

- 1 You have asked me to confirm that the High Court criminal proceedings as referred to above are at an end. I confirm that is the case. The Crown offered no evidence against Mr Sroubek/Antolik on 9 March 2016 and he was discharged, pursuant to s 347 of the Crimes Act 1961. The minute from Moore J from 9 March 2016 is attached.
- 2 Accordingly, Mr Sroubek/Antolik is not subject to any bail conditions in relation to the High Court proceeding.

Yours faithfully

AUCKLAND REGISTRY

CRI-2013-404-000328

THE QUEEN

v

KAREL SROUBEK aka JAN ANTOLIK

Hearing: 9 March 2016

Appearances: David Johnstone for the Crown
David Jones QC for the Defendant

Date of Minute: 9 March 2016

---

CALLOVER MINUTE OF MOORE J

---

Solicitors/Counsel:
Crown Solicitor, Auckland
Mr Jones QC, Auckland

[1] Mr Sroubek appeared at callover this morning in relation to charges of possession of class C controlled drug for supply (x 1) and conspiracy to supply a controlled drug (x 1). His appearance in this Court follows his conviction on 25 February 2016 in the District Court at Auckland. He was convicted of importing MDMA. He is awaiting sentence.

[2] The Crown has advised that it is no longer in the public interest to proceed with this re-trial and thus invites the Court to discharge the defendant under s 347 of the Crimes Act 1961.

[3] In all the circumstances I am satisfied it is proper the defendant is discharged in relation to the charges he faces in this Court and accordingly I make orders to that effect.

[4] Mr Jones QC, for the defendant, requested that the present suppression orders continue on the grounds that these are necessary for the defendant's protection. Mr Johnstone, for the Crown, opposed this course observing that there were suppression orders in the District Court and similar orders in this Court were unnecessary.

[5] Given the paucity of information presently before me and the need to deal with this matter in a way which is fair to all parties I directed Mr Jones to file and serve submissions in support of continued name suppression by midday on Friday, 11 March 2016 and for the Crown to file and serve its submissions in response by midday on Monday, 14 March 2016. The question of continued name suppression will then be dealt with on the papers unless it is necessary to hear further from counsel.

Moore J
