Dear Matthew Hooton

On behalf of Gabriel Makhlouf, Secretary to the Treasury, I acknowledge receipt of your email requesting:

This Official Information Act request is therefore about what forecasts or projections the Treasury has made or holds on asset prices over the next decade. Please provide me under the OIA all such forecasts or projections divided into various asset classes, such as "family homes," "rental properties," "shares on the NZX" etc, with which Treasury will use to provide advice to ministers on the likely revenue from various CGT proposals.

Your request was received by the Treasury on 4 February 2019 and will be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of the Official Information Act.

The Treasury will not publish your personal contact details or use the information for any reason other than processing your request. The personal information you provide is subject to the requirements of the Privacy Act 1993 and the Official Information Act 1982.

Yours sincerely

Liam McCabe
Ministerial Advisor
