3.2	Venkat expressed his concerns that the communities in different areas have different issues and each Districts operate differently. He has brought up Gandhi Nivas as an example where there were difficulties launching it in Auckland Central District whereas there were no difficulties in the other 2 districts. Baljit questioned on how the selection of the EAB members and her being one of the Waitemata District EAB members, she is only interested in Waitemata communities. Joanna said issues Korean communities have are all the same across TM. She said if the EAB members are balanced well, she would not have any concern. Shivneel suggested to trial it before making the change. Susan said she could see the reasons in combining the EAB groups into one. She would like to see more collaboration also with the Iwi and Pacific Advisory Boards. She said this would enable a better communication and understandings across all of the communities in TM. She raised her concerns around the TM meeting held only three times a year as this is less frequent than what there is now.	Venkat Baljit Joanna Shivneel Susan Naveen

	Pravin said combining EAB meetings may enable making more holistic approaches to help the ethnic communities in TM. He said the EAB meeting should be more action oriented as he feels that Waitemata EAB meetings have not made many achievements in the last 2 years since he has joined the group.
3.3	DC Hassan pointed out that the community engagements and operations often have been duplicated across TM. She assured the members that the members would still be able to represent their communities and combining the groups would create a better platform to discuss and share information effectively. She advised that she has taken the account of the feedbacks from the EAB members and that she would discuss this with other EAB members in other districts. Insp Gray has supported DC Hassan's suggestion advising that combining the meetings would be beneficial if this is mitigated well. Jessica advised that there will still be members representing the district and combining them together would make a stronger voice.. AC Fergus also assured that the local connections can still be maintained and the EAB members can bring their perspectives to the combined meeting.	DC Hassan Insp Gray ERM Phuang AC Fergus
